

OUR MISSION

BILL MOORE
PRESIDENT

We recognize that there are many people struggling with poverty in our world today. We desire to help meet this need by creating jobs as our company grows. PacMoore will grow by continuing to provide innovative solutions and excellent service to our customers.

We train our employees not only in work skills but also life skills, such as spiritual development. Our belief that Christianity is the most significant change agent in the world fuels our mission to invest in others as we grow.

PacMoore Products, Inc.

PacMoore is a dry ingredients contract manufacturer focused on the food and pharmaceutical industries. PacMoore's ever-growing capabilities include blending, spray drying, extruding, sifting, retail packaging, grinding, and re-packaging. Our flexible, modular platform of equipment supports a solution-oriented approach that is sure to meet your needs.

PacMoore is certified by BRC / GFSI, GMA-SAFE, AIB, and Silliker. PacMoore has been approved to produce Grade A Dairy powders, Kosher (OU), Gluten Free (GFCO), Organic (QAI), and Halal products. In addition, our internal "PacMoore Certified" standards allow us to be audit-ready at any time.

PacMoore has plants located in Hammond, IN and Mooresville, IN. Our workforce is highly trained to ensure your products are safe, secure, and produced to the specifications you provide. Our product capabilities encompass virtually every type of dry ingredient or blend including liquid and oil introductions. Our packaging capabilities range from retail packaging to multiwall bags, drums, bag in box, super sacks, bulk truck, and bulk rail.

PacMoore consistently demonstrates the ability to assist our customers with their product development needs. Not only does PacMoore's management team have extensive experience in this area but our pilot equipment allows us to conduct quality, cost effective production trials.

PacMoore takes the risk out of contract manufacturing by focusing on the highest levels of quality, customer service, and training. PacMoore also demonstrates its values of faith, integrity, respect, passion, and family everyday. We view ourselves as an extension of our customer's operations.

PacMoore has a diverse, highly respected, and loyal clientele ranging from many Fortune 500 companies to a host of valued medium and small sized customers. PacMoore invites you to join us and become a valued customer as well. We desire to be your solution.
